

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT:

- a scheduled, dedicated time frame during which you'll receive one-on-one tutoring as part of your writing process. You may wish to schedule a session only one time, for a few sessions or on a regular basis. You may seek help on your own or at the recommendation of your teacher.
- tutoring, coaching, collaborating in ways that help you find your own answers to your writing questions or problems. This will be an interactive process, engaging you in discussions to help you structure your ideas while practicing the phrasing and vocabulary choices that best reflect your understanding of and response to the assignment.
- attention to your unique and particular needs or goals. You'll be encouraged to set an agenda for your time with me.
- helpful questions and suggestions that move you towards more effective, accomplished critical thinking and writing. Line editing is your job.

WHAT I'LL EXPECT

- your scheduled appointment with me on Google Drive as entered by your teacher
 - a copy of your assignment
 - your draft on a computer
 - a paper copy of your draft for me
 - your specific questions
 - your engaged attention
 - your good humor